Get Serving This Summer!

The summer months usually mean fewer activities to track. That, combined with warmer weather and vacation time, makes summer an ideal time to serve. Start small, looking to your children's passions for volunteer ideas.

- If your kids are creative, have them make cards for neighbors.
- If your family enjoys nature, pick up trash at a local park or tend a community garden.
- To give back at church, clean pews, classrooms, or nursery toys.
- To keep children's skills sharp on summer break, have them write letters to homebound relatives or nursing-home residents.

Through fun, age-appropriate projects, children can see the immediate impacts of following God's command to serve one another

POWERSOURCE

ASK GOD:

1. To give each member of your family a spirit of service this summer.
2. To direct you to projects and people in need of assistance.
3. To work through your family members to bless the people you serve.

Hi-Def Kids Serving: Did you know the Hi-Def Kids participated in acolyte training with Pastor Mike? The preteens were instructed on the symbolism of "lighting the candles" for worship and what each step in lighting and extinguishing the candles represents to us Christians. This was a wonderful learning time and a service they were eager to practice. Soon they will be sharing what they've learned by participating in worship. Please be praying for these young people as they develop spiritually and serve our congregation and our God!

“God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another.”
(1 Peter 4:10)

God created all of us—including children—to love by serving.

TEACHABLE MOMENTS

1. Pitch-In Praise—Let children know that the chores they complete at home are acts of service. Acknowledge their positive attitudes when they help around the house and yard without complaint.

2. Share the Wealth—When it's time to clean out the garage or closet, find people who can use your items. Together, take gently used clothing to shelters. Deliver books and toys to churches, schools, libraries, and hospitals.

3. Secret Service—To let children know that serving is its own reward, tackle some projects that allow you to remain anonymous. Then discuss what it feels like to help someone without being recognized. Remind children that everything we do is for Jesus, who knows our hearts and blesses our efforts.

After a volunteer experience, debrief your children with these discussion-starter questions:

1. How did this activity make you feel? What was the best part of the experience, and what was the most challenging?
2. How did people react to what you did for them, and how did that make you feel?
3. What other ideas for serving can you think of? What are some more ways you can make a difference in the neighborhood? at school? at church? at home?

FAMILY EXPERIENCE

Dive into these fun adventures to show kids just how fun and far-reaching their acts of service can be.

• Super Samaritan—You'll need stick-on name tags and markers. Read aloud the parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:27-37). Give each family member a name tag and a marker. Say: “Write an ‘S’ on your name tag and decorate the rest of the sticker to look like your very own superhero logo. Then stick the tag to the inside of your shirt where no one else can see it.” Pray that God will help you all be on the lookout for people to help. Close by shouting together, “This is a job for Super Samaritan!” A week or so later, have family members share how they helped and served.

• Waves of Service—Fill a small swimming pool with water and five diving rings. On a large piece of paper, write down what the rings stand for: 1.) God, 2.) family and friends, 3.) church family, 4.) community, and 5.) world. Say, “When we choose to serve God, we start a chain reaction of events. By serving God, we also serve others.” Take turns dropping marbles into the pool and watch the ripple effects. Say: “This one little action affects all the water. That's how it is with service. Everything we do as we serve God has an effect on our world.” Brainstorm ways your family can serve in each of the five areas. Close by holding hands in a circle and praying: “Dear God, we know you're at the center of our lives. Please make us your willing servants. Bless our projects and remind us that every time we serve a person in need, we're actually serving you! In Jesus' name, amen.”

MEDIA MADNESS

MOVIES

Movie: Zookeeper

Genre: Comedy

Rating: PG

Cast: Kevin James, Adam Sandler, Joe Rogan, Cher

Synopsis: Andrew is a caretaker who's more comfortable with animals than people. When he decides to leave his job, the animals not only reveal they can talk, but they also help Andrew in the romance department.

Our Take: This film will attract kids who grew up watching Madagascar, but parents should note that it contains some rude and suggestive humor, as well as some foul language.

MUSIC

Artist: Owl City

Album: All Things Bright and Beautiful

Artist Info: Two years ago, Adam Young scored a hit with his electronic/synthpop song "Fireflies." Now this one-man band is turning to acoustic guitar and piano accompaniments for his thoughtful lyrics.

Summary: Many of Young's songs reflect his Christian faith, although he isn't labeled a "Christian artist." He says, "My faith is very important to me and is a very big part of who I am as an individual."

Our Take: Owl City is a good, inspirational alternative for kids who want to listen to popular new music that steers clear of offensive topics and lyrics.

CULTURE & TRENDS

- The dangerous "pharming" trend isn't just for teens anymore. Younger children are stealing their parents' prescription meds—especially pain pills—to get a buzz. (National Institute on Drug Abuse)
- Parents who frequently feel angry at or bothered by their children increase the risk of their kids becoming bullies. (Pediatric Academic Societies)

Children's Chapel at Faith U.M.C.

Here's a look at what Pastor Mike is sharing with the YMCA preschool children:

- Gen. 18 & 21- The birth of Isaac
- Gen. 24 & 25- A wife for Isaac
- Gen. 27- Isaac blesses Jacob
